

Fast Fact with Wilma: All 'cows' are female. The males are called bulls or steers.

Wilma

I am a Jersey Dairy cow, but I love to be pet like a dog - right behind the ears! I was rescued from a veal farm in 2007 and I love eating leaves and laying in the sun.

Some people ask why I look thin? Well, as a dairy cow, that is how I look. If you couldn't see my ribs that means I ate too much! My doctor tells me I am in great shape for my age.
